

María del Carmen G. Villa
204 Marta St.
College Station, TX 77845
(979) 764-3195 cgvilla@neo.tamu.edu

Objective

To find employment in an academic environment in order to apply my education and international professional experience.

Education

PHD Student Educational Administration and Human Resource Development.
TexasA&M University
Dissertation on female engineering student in Mexico.
Research on domestic violence among incarcerated women.

College Teaching Certificate 2006
Texas A&M University

Education Certificate., 1998
Universidad Panamericana, Mexico

Diplôme de Etudes Approfondies en Informatique 1984
(Equivalent to a Masters Degree in Computer Science)
Institut National Polytechnique, Grenoble, France

Bachelors Degree in Computer Science Engineering (Honors Degree) 1982
Tecnológico de Monterrey, México

Profesional Experience

Lecturer. Hispanic Studies Department, TAMU 2007-present
Graduate/Research Assistant: College of Education, TAMU 2004 present
Student editor for QSE journal, TAMU 2004-present
Spanish Instructor: Mays Business School, TAMU 2006-2008
Culture and Etiquette Instructor, Office for Latin American Programs, TAMU 2006
Program Coordinator. Office for Latin American Programs 2004

Associate Director School of Engineering. 1994-2001
Universidad Panamericana, Mexico
Academic and management activities for the School of Engineering. Management activities include Head Department, Assistant Director, and Associate Director.
Academic activities included lecturing undergraduate and graduate level courses.

Independent Consultant, San Jose California. 1989 1993
Research and English - Spanish technical documents translations

Engineering Student Affairs Director. 1985-1988
Tecnológico de Monterrey.
Included 3 different majors Industrial Engineering, Computer Systems and Electronic Systems

References upon request.